

HRS4R Awareness Session Feedback

Thank you for attending our HRS4R Awareness Session.

Your views on the program are important to us. Please provide feedback on this session by completing this quick survey.

Your email address will be recorded when you submit this form.

Not participant@blanquerna.url.edu? Switch account

*"Please don't forget to sign up for this unique opportunity!
In addition to the connection details, all registered participants will receive a link to the presentations, an E-Certificate of participation, and additional materials on the session.
We hope we can count on your participation.*

Blanquerna HRS4R Awareness Session (online event)

Friday, December 18th at 12pm

Mary O'Regan, HR Research
Manager in University College
Cork-National University of Ireland

Lorena Muñoz, partner at Effectia Innovation
Solutions IE

*Required

Name

*

Your answer

Email

*

Your answer

Was the information delivered in the session new to you? *

- No, I had already received information on the initiative
- No, I had actually participated in outreach efforts regarding the initiative
- Most of the information on the HRS4R award was new to me

Would you like to learn more about this topic? *

- Yes
- No

Please rate the speakers' knowledge of the topic: *

- Excellent
- Good
- Fair
- Poor

The HRS4R Award demonstrates a commitment to good working conditions and career development for researchers

According to the information on the HRS4R award provided during the session, is the previous statement correct? *

- Yes
- No

The European Charter & Code for Researchers: *

- is a letter of commitment signed by all researchers in Europe.
- is a set of general principles and requirements which specifies the roles, responsibilities and rights of researchers and employers.

Submit